

Have Yourself a Techie Little Christmas

A project of the Connected Community Committee
Olds Institute for Community & Regional Development

Contest rules:

1. All residents of Olds and district are eligible to enter, with the exception of employees and contractors of the Olds Institute for Community & Regional Development, or any of its committees.
2. There is no entry fee, and individuals may submit more than one entry.
3. Each entry must be assigned to one of three categories: student, family, business. Entrants must specify in which category their entry belongs.
4. All contest entries must be submitted by email to TechChristmas@oldsc.com
5. Each entry should clearly describe how the entrant is using technology to enhance Christmas or Holiday experiences. Recordings, videos, links, pictures, or other explanatory material attached to the email are acceptable.
6. Entrants must include their full name and contact information, including phone number. All submitted information will remain confidential.
7. Entries will be accepted until midnight, December 20, 2012.
8. Winners will be chosen and announced no later than December 21, 2012.
9. Each winner will receive a cash prize of $100.
10. Winners must agree to have their entries featured in advertising prepared by the Connected Community Committee of the Olds Institute, and on the Committee's website and blog. This publicity may include photographs, a description of the winning entry, and the winners' names. Winners may choose to have only their first name appear in publicity.
11. All decisions are final, and no disputes in connection with the results of the contest will be considered.
